

Attachment 2: Photo Document (Part 1: Pages 1-15)

Photos 1-2: Shames River, Mile ~15.5. 14 October 2017.

Photo 1. Upstream view, left bank; note damaged red osier dogwood over channel.

Photo 2. View across to left bank; note damaged vegetation evident up to rail bridge abutments on both banks.

Photo 3: Mile ~20.5, taken from Esker overpass. 14 October 2017.

Photo 3: Downstream view of high-value rearing area in off-channel habitat of the Skeena River.

Photos 4-6: Polymar Creek, Mile ~43. 14 October 2017.

Photo 4. Upstream view to right bank; note wetland area that continues to east below rail bridge.

Photo 5. View to northwest; note defoliated red osier dogwood at rail bridge abutment, and wetland area beyond.

Attachment 2: Photo Document

Field Assessment Report and Background Review
CN 2017 Herbicide Application in the Skeena Sub,
Terrace to Prince Rupert, BC

Photo 6: View to northwest; note line of defoliated shrubs at least up to rail bridge abutment.